Eastern Wisconsin Odyssey: From Maritime Marvels to Artistic Wonders

Get ready for an unforgettable adventure through Eastern Wisconsin, with Manitowoc as our charming base for three nights. This captivating trip blends history, culture, natural beauty, and sweet indulgence.

Thursday, September 26th — Sunday, September 29th , 2024

- Day 1: Our journey today will take us through Minnesota into Wisconsin, with rest stops along the way. We will start the weekend fun with a stop at the Green Bay Botanical Gardens a vibrant tapestry of colors and scents, with a guided tour and an aromatic herbal experience. We will continue onto Manitowoc for our 3 night stay on the shores of Lake Michigan. Manitowoc-Two Rivers boasts 20 miles of stunning Lake Michigan shoreline, perfect for nature lovers and relaxation seekers.
- Day 2: Manitowoc beckons with its rich maritime history. This morning we will tour Still Bend—a Frank Lloyd Wright house. It is considered to be Wright’s Life magazine “Dream House”, Wright developed the design in 1938. We will tour the Wisconsin Maritime Museum and the USS Cobia. Manitowoc is know for it’s ship building and contributions to war efforts. In the afternoon we will tour of Rahr West Art Museum and explore the downtown area. A day in Manitowoc isn’t complete without some sweets at Beernsten’s candy and ice cream.
- Day 3: We will step away from Manitowoc today and head south to Sheboygan Wi area. We will visit the Kohler Design Center and Museum for innovative designs and venture north to explore art and whimsy at John Michael Kohler Arts Center and Bookworm Gardens. The Art Preserve is the world’s first museum to focus entirely on the work from artist-built environments. Our afternoon will include a walk through Bookworm Gardens a vibrant, playful botanic garden inspired by children’s literature, the natural world and the imagination.

- Day 4: We will be wrapping up our time in Wisconsin today. We still have a bit to see before leaving. This morning we will have a tour at Roger Street Fishing & Hamilton Woodtype & Printing Museum. We will stop for lunch on our way home.
