314.2 POLICY

The Spring Lake Park Police Department recognizes that there is a critical need for immediate and consistent response to reports of missing and endangered children and or persons. The intent of this policy is to fully comply with Minnesota Statute 299C.53, subd. 1(a), aka Brandon's Law. The decisions made and actions taken during the preliminary stages have a profound effect on the outcome of the case. Therefore, this department has established the following responsibilities and guidelines for the investigation of missing and endangered persons. All peace officers employed by this department will be informed of, and comply with, the following required procedures.

Per MN Statute 299C.53, Subd. 1 (a), this agency shall accept, without delay, any report of a missing person. Law Enforcement shall not refuse to accept a missing person report on the basis that:

- a) The missing person is an adult;
- b) The circumstances do not indicate foul play;
- c) The person has been missing for a short amount of time;
- d) The person has been missing for a long amount of time'
- e) There is no indication that the missing person was in the jurisdiction served by the law enforcement agency at the time of the disappearance;
- f) The circumstances suggest that the disappearance may be voluntary;
- g) The reporting person does not have personal knowledge of the facts;
- h) The reporting person cannot provide all the information requested by the law enforcement agency;
- i) The reporting person lacks a familial or other relationship with the missing person; or j) For any other reason, except in cases where the law enforcement agency has direct knowledge that the person is, in fact, not missing, and the whereabouts and welfare of the person are known at the time the report is filed.

Upon receiving a report of a person believed to be missing, a law enforcement agency shall conduct a preliminary investigation to determine whether the person is missing, and if missing, whether the person is endangered. If the person is initially determined to be missing and endangered, the agency shall immediately consult the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension during the preliminary investigation, in recognition of the fact that the first two hours are critical. If the person is determined to be missing and endangered, the agency shall immediately enter identifying and descriptive information about the person into the NCIC computer. Law enforcement agencies having direct access to the NCIC computer shall enter and retrieve the data directly and shall cooperate in the entry and retrieval of data on behalf of law enforcement agencies that may not have direct access to the systems.

Reports are to be signed by the complainant as true and accurate. (Mandated)

If it should be determined that the missing person is in another jurisdiction, that agency is to be notified and assistance requested. If that jurisdiction is a substantial distance away, the report will be turned over to that agency for investigation. After this department has received a report of a missing person, the basic facts of the case, descriptions of the missing child and abductor (if known), and a determination by the responding officer that there is sufficient evidence to believe that the person is endangered, the department will respond according to the following six types of general procedures:

1) Initial Response, 2) Initial Investigation, 3) Investigation, 4) Thirty-Day Benchmark, 5) Prolonged Investigation, and 6) Recovery/Case Closure. The facts surrounding each missing and endangered child report will dictate when the procedures are warranted, and what the order and priority should be within each of the five categories. However, each of the procedures must be carried out immediately.

314.3 ACCEPTANCE OF REPORTS

Any member encountering a person who wishes to report a missing person or runaway shall render assistance without delay. This can be accomplished by accepting the report via telephone or in person and initiating the investigation. Those members who do not take such reports or who are unable to give immediate assistance shall promptly dispatch or alert a member who can take the report.

A report shall be accepted in all cases and regardless of where the person was last seen, where the person resides or any question of jurisdiction (Minn. Stat. § 299C.53, Subd.1(a)).

314.4 INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Officers
